1st VIPS-IPR NATIONAL STUDENTS' CONFERENCE

31st August 2019

In fourteenth century, the Inns of Court started simulation exercise to train the students of law in the rigours of pleading and advocacy. These exercises were slowly and gradually adopted by all the Universities of law. It not only helped in improving academic performance of the students but also enhanced their critical faculty. It enhanced their research, analytical skills as well as their ability to learn the law. Nowadays, various means of research have been evolved in contemporary areas of law. Conference is one of the best ways where students put forth their own research, get acquitted with the research by others and then discuss it together. Intellectual Property Rights (IPR) is witnessing evolving new areas of research. IPR holds significance in not only legal field but affects other disciplines also. Research in IPR is the need of the hour. It connects us with individuals, society, state and international community. IPR has many perspectives of human rights, economic rights and many more. The Conference focuses only on one of the area of IPR, with the belief that the potential delegates would put forward the best of their knowledge and research.

1st VIPS IPR National Conference in Intellectual Property Right in Information Age: Global Response, is a one day national conference for the delegates to make presentation in the forthcoming areas of IPR. Some areas like, human rights, GMO's, virtual world, etc. needs specific reflection by the young minds. The delegates may take up IPR and related areas for making an effective contribution in the Conference.

The institution would be humbled by your benevolent presence in our campus. We look forward to your positive response.
